ST. PAUL'S UCC

An Open and Affirming Congregation

"How to Move from Anxiety to Peace" will be the focus of our Mother's Day worship service today. We are excited to welcome a Saxophone Quartet from Susquehanna University who will inspire us together with Jaime Namminga on the piano. Pastor Dietmar will present the Children's Message. We have a small flower gift for all women and girls after the service.

Join us at Messy Church on May 19 at 4 p.m.! Sign up today! This session will revolve around Pentecost, and we have a variety of enjoyable activities lined up. Every individual is distinct, with their own background, perspective on the world, cultural influences, and unique way of interacting with others. During Pentecost, we witness how God's Spirit embraces these differences to help each of us understand and experience God's love in our own special way.

Please join us in wearing something red, orange, or yellow on Pentecost Sunday. We will be exploring the fire, energy, and power of the Holy Spirit who fills our hearts, motivates us, and sets us on fire to be witnesses of the living God. During this service, we will be honoring our graduates and welcoming a group of new members to St. Paul's. We are excited about this and hope to see you there!
